updates & reminders

Dates to Remember

- May 23: Summer Classes, Part I and Part III begin
  - May 30: No classes
  - Please check all summer term dates here
- Other important dates may be found on the academic calendar.

On Your Radar

As we approach a new academic year and working with new students, consider updating and sharing your Advising Philosophy or Advising Syllabus with incoming students and families.

Global Advising Week Raffle Winners

The Advising Network hosted a social media campaign to engage and celebrate their registered members during Global Advising Week. The winners of the Global Advising Week social media campaign won money towards a conference registration of their choice. Congratulations to our raffle winners!
